Welcome to this week's newsletter. Firstly this week, I would like to say thank you to everyone in the school community for the way in which they have supported our response to the recent Covid outbreak in school. Fortunately, as I write this the picture in school is greatly improved from last week – we currently have far fewer known cases (14 today as opposed to 42 last Friday). Everyone has been helpful and understanding which is greatly appreciated. We of course send well wishes to all of the children, families and staff who are currently experience Covid. I'm hopeful we will have the an even brighter picture next week! All being well we will remove some temporary measures we have had in place and resume normal assemblies and singing etc

This week:

- Today is Comic Relief Red Nose Day, and as you know we held a non-uniform day. We raised £117.51 of this worth cause. If you would like to add donations please do so via the school office!
- Reading for Pleasure clubs finished this week. Thank you to all of the children who joined us over the last 6 weeks.

Next week:

- On Monday 21st March it is World Down Syndrome day. I will be leading an assembly on this important topic and we would like to mark this day by encouraging children to 'wear odd socks'. We are an inclusive school and we promote 'respect' and inclusion of all. Thanks in advance for your support with this. Let's see everyone wearing odd socks on Monday!
- Young Voices event is getting closer! All of the children who are participating will be receiving a letter with more information next week.

Other news:

- Books for sale! a message from Mrs Burton:

I thought with the holidays coming, we could promote buying books again so I have set up another book club here are the details:

Our new Scholastic Book Club is up and running! Go to <https://schools.scholastic.co.uk/carltoninsnaith-comm/digital-book-club> to browse the latest books and order online. For every £1 you spend on this month's Book Club, our school will earn 20p in Scholastic Rewards. Please place your order online by April 1st, 2022.

- Toilet twinning and Monday cake sales - A message from Reverend Becky

Just to update everyone, we reached our target on Monday of £60 and have donated to the Toilet Twinning charity online. This means we have twinned our toilet at St Mary's Church with one in Alunguli in Congo, Africa! A big thank you to everyone who supported us so far!

We plan to try again on Monday to see if we can raise enough for another toilet to be twinned at school- if anyone would like to bring some pocket money we will have lots of snacks available from 3pm at the back of school.

Best wishes

Revd Becky (aka Amy's mum!)

I Hope you all have a great weekend. Don't forget the odds socks on Monday!

Regards and best wishes
