

PE		Year 2
Focus: Invasion Games
Age related vocabulary
possession	When a team has the ball, they are in possession	teammates	The other people on your team
send	To pass to someone using your hands, feet or an object	receive	To collect or stop a ball that is coming towards you using your hands, feet or an object
dodge	To move quickly	goal	Scoring a point by throwing/ kicking/ hitting the ball into the goal
bounce pass	A pass to another player by bouncing the ball on the floor	chest pass	A pass to another player by pushing the ball from your chest

Carlton Assessment Grid
Success Criteria	Pupil Reflection		Teacher Assessment
I can understand what being in possession means and support a team mate to do this	Before <input type="checkbox"/>	After <input type="checkbox"/>
I can use a variety of skills to score goals	Before <input type="checkbox"/>	After <input type="checkbox"/>
I can develop how I stop goals	Before <input type="checkbox"/>	After <input type="checkbox"/>
I can learn how to gain possession of the ball	Before <input type="checkbox"/>	After <input type="checkbox"/>
I can develop my understanding of marking an opponent	Before <input type="checkbox"/>	After <input type="checkbox"/>
I can learn to apply simple tactics for attacking and defending	Before <input type="checkbox"/>	After <input type="checkbox"/>

Key Knowledge
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Examples of invasion games are: basketball, netball, football, hockey, lacrosse, rugby and handball. Interception – catching a pass made by a player on the other team Marking – when a player defends someone on the other team Getting free – when an attacking player moves into space to lose their defender 	The diagram is a pink box with the title 'Key principles of invasion games'. It is divided into two columns: 'Attacking' and 'Defending'. Under 'Attacking', the principles listed are: 'Score goals', 'Create space', 'Maintain possession', and 'Move the ball towards goal'. Under 'Defending', the principles listed are: 'Stop goals', 'Deny space', and 'Gain possession'.