

French	Year 3
Focus: Au Marché (At the market)
Age related vocabulary

une pomme de terre	potato	s'il vous plait	please
des petits pois	some peas	C'est combien?	How much is it?
un chou	cabbage	Qu'est-ce que tu as?	What do you have?
Je voudrais un/une...	I would like a ...	cent	a hundred

Key Knowledge
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. French markets are great places for buying fresh produce, especially fruit and vegetables. 2. Remember not to pronounce the 's' at the end of plurals. 3. When making a vegetable plural, most of the time add on an 's' with the exception of choux (cabbages). Be careful with pommes de terre (potatoes). 4. When in conversation, hesitation, gestures, apologising and asking (in French) for repetition are helpful strategies.

French	Carlton Assessment Grid
Success Criteria	Pupil Reflection		Teacher Assessment
I can listen and respond to familiar spoken words, phrases and sentences.	Before <input type="checkbox"/>	After <input type="checkbox"/>
I understand the importance of taking turns to speak, valuing the contribution of others.	Before <input type="checkbox"/>	After <input type="checkbox"/>
I recognise and understand some familiar words and phrases in written form.	Before <input type="checkbox"/>	After <input type="checkbox"/>	