

PE	Year 5/6
Focus: Gymnastics
Age related PE vocabulary
Orienteering—a sport that involves navigating around a	Tactical—arranging and moving forces in combat to reach an course using a map and compass to reach set control	accomplished end

Key knowledge

points

- Emphasise the importance of strong body tension when performing balances to help to keep pupils stable.
- symmetrical both sides are exactly the same. Asymmetrical when both sides are different.
- Safe distance from partners when practising a roll.
- Five key methods of travel are step, spin, slide, jump, roll.
- Work within your limits, to a point where you feel comfortable and maintain the quality of a stretch.
- Canon is when performers move one after the other.
- Synchronisation is when performers perform the same skills and actions at the same time.
- When in a front support squeeze your abdominal muscles to keep a strong straight shape with your shoulders over
- an inverted movement is an action where your hips go above your head. your hands.

PE Y5			Carlton As	sessment Grid	PE Y6 Carlton Assessment Gr
Gymnastics	Embedded	Progress		Beginning	Gymnastics	Gymnastics Embedded		Progressing
Success Criteria		Pupil Reflection		Teacher As- sessment	Success Criteria	Success Criteria		Pupil Reflection
I can perform symmetrical and asymmetrical balances show- ing increasing control and balance when moving from one to another		Before	After		I can perform symmetrical and asymmetrical balances com- bining more challenging bal- ances with control, technique and fluency		Before	After
I can develop the straight, forward, straddle and back- ward roll using strength and flexibility to improve my roll.		Before	After		I can develop the straight, forward, straddle and back- ward roll using strength and confidence to transition from one to another		Before	After
I can explore different methods of travelling, linking actions in both canon and synchronisation using strength and flexibility to improve my actions.		Before	After		I can explore different methods of travelling, linking actions in both canon and synchronisation using strength and confidence to transition from one to another.		Before	After
I can perform of gressions of in- ments to a goo	verted move-	ted move- inverted movements with		ments with	Before	After
I can explore m mirroring using on the floor and showing increa and balance wh from one to and	actions both d on apparatus sing control hen moving	Before	After		I can explore n mirroring using the floor and o combining mor balances with o nique and fluer	actions both on n apparatus e challenging control, tech-	Before	After
I can create a d sequence using a good standar					I can plan a pa using apparatu sion, control ar				