Key Knowledge

- French does not use capital letters for days of the week, the seasons of the year or the months of the year.
- Numbers with a final digit of 1, e.g. 21, 31, 41 etc. are written vingt et un (twenty and one). All numbers are as they sound, '34 = trente-quatre.
- Hyphens are used between the numbers, for example 'vingt-trois'.
- When you say the full date in French (with the day of week) you don't say 'the' (le)
- For example , you say the words 'Aujourd'hui, c'est...' which means, 'Today, it is...)
- The first day of the month is different, 'C'est le premier' ...or '1er' abbreviation.
- You should not give Chrysanthemums to French people to celebrate as they are seen as flowers used for sad occasions.
- They don't send Christmas cards in France- they send New Year cards instead.
