Un chat	A cat	J'ai…	I have…
Un chien	A dog	Je n'ai pas	I don't have
Un lapin	A rabbit	Comment s'appelle ton animal?	What is your animal called?
Un cochon d'inde	A guinea Pig	Qui s'appelle…	Who is called…
As-tu?	Have you?

Key Knowledge

- When a noun ends with a consonant such as, 'chat', 'chien' and 'lapin', it is a silent last consonant. We would pronounce these as, 'sha', she-ah' and 'lap-ah'

- When we are introducing a family pet and we would like to give its name, we would use the phrase 'qui s'appelle', meaning 'who is called'. We pronounce 'Qui' as the word 'key'.

- Using the age related French vocabulary to expand a sentence eg;

  'J'ai un chien' can become 'J'ai un chat qui s'appelle Spot'.

- When we use the question 'as-tu?' we need to add on what it might be that the person does or doesn't have eg, 'As-tu un chat?' or 'As-tu un animaux?' We can re-call on previous learning by adding other nouns eg; 'As-tu un soeur?' meaning 'have you got a sister?'
