

Science		Year 1
Focus: Everyday Materials
Age related vocabulary
Material	What everything that you can touch is made of.	Prediction	To say what you think might happen in the future.

Carlton Assessment Grid
Success Criteria	Pupil Reflection		Teacher Assessment
I can identify and name different everyday materials.	Before <input type="checkbox"/>	After <input type="checkbox"/>
I can list the materials used for different objects.	Before <input type="checkbox"/>	After <input type="checkbox"/>
I can describe the physical properties of a material.	Before <input type="checkbox"/>	After <input type="checkbox"/>
I can predict which material will be the most absorbent.	Before <input type="checkbox"/>	After <input type="checkbox"/>
I can test different materials and make observations.	Before <input type="checkbox"/>	After <input type="checkbox"/>

Key Knowledge

- Objects are made from materials.
- Wood, plastic, glass, metal, rock and fabric are types of materials.
- Words such as: strong, hard, rigid, soft, bendy, light, heavy, transparent, rough, smooth, absorbent, waterproof, dull and shiny, can be used to describe the properties of a material.

