Key Knowledge

- The national flag of France is a tricolour featuring three vertical bands coloured blue (hoist side), white, and red.
- The Tour de France is an annual men's multiple-stage bicycle race held primarily in France. It is the oldest of the three Grand Tours and is generally considered the most prestigious.
- In French, il (meaning he, it) and elle (meaning she, it) are used to talk about a thing, as well as about a person or an animal. You use il for masculine nouns and elle for feminine nouns.
- The departments were created in 1790 with a view to strengthen national unity; the title "department" is used to mean a part of a larger whole.
